Why involve churches in social prescribing

Claire Fenner Crawley

Manager Churchworks Commission

The ChurchWorks Commission

Social Prescribing and the Church

www.churchworks.org.uk

What is the ChurchWorks Commission?

- Commission of 24 senior church leaders from 15 major UK denominations
- Uniting to focus on priorities for UK Covid recovery in communities:
 - Community wellbeing
 - Children and young people
 - Cost of living crisis 4000+ warm spaces open this winter (warmwelcome.uk)

Social Prescribing: in the church's DNA

- Churches have been building and linking communities for centuries
- ChurchWorks Commissioners are committed to involving churches more in local social prescribing networks

• Strengths of churches:

- Strong community links
- Skill in welcoming and befriending
- Reduced stigma compared to statutory services
- Deeper access to certain communities (vaccination campaign)
- Community-focused physical space

Social prescribing to Church Works churches: only for Christians?

Many churches run high quality programmes for the community

- Open to people of all faiths and none
- Nationally supervised
- · Agreements covering safeguarding, proselytising

Kintsugi Hope – wellbeing peer support groups

The Bereavement Journey – bereavement peer support groups

Linking Lives – befriending to tackle isolation

How the partnership began and evolved...

How the partnership has proved mutually beneficial

- Referral route into project
- Marketplace project is well aligned to Social Prescribing principles
- Brilliant welcome from Marketplace

volunteers

- SPLWs provide social signposting expertise
- Removing barriers to access

The Church Perspective

The Social Prescribers at Southampton Central PCN are AMAZING !!

Julia*

Hadn't let her home in over 2 years before coming to the Marketplace. 18 months later, she has the confidence to attend solo and has a volunteering job that she loves!

Southampton Central Primary Care Network

Paul*

The Marketplace enables him to access a variety of food whilst unable to work. Social prescribers have supported him with access to correct mental health support.

The Church Perspective

- Expert knowledge that volunteers do not possess
- Greater integration into local community
- Less formal space creates a more relaxed atmosphere for patients
- Tackles the cause to a members crisis
